Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is an interesting landmark in your city?
- What landmarks do you know in other cities?

Can Do Statements

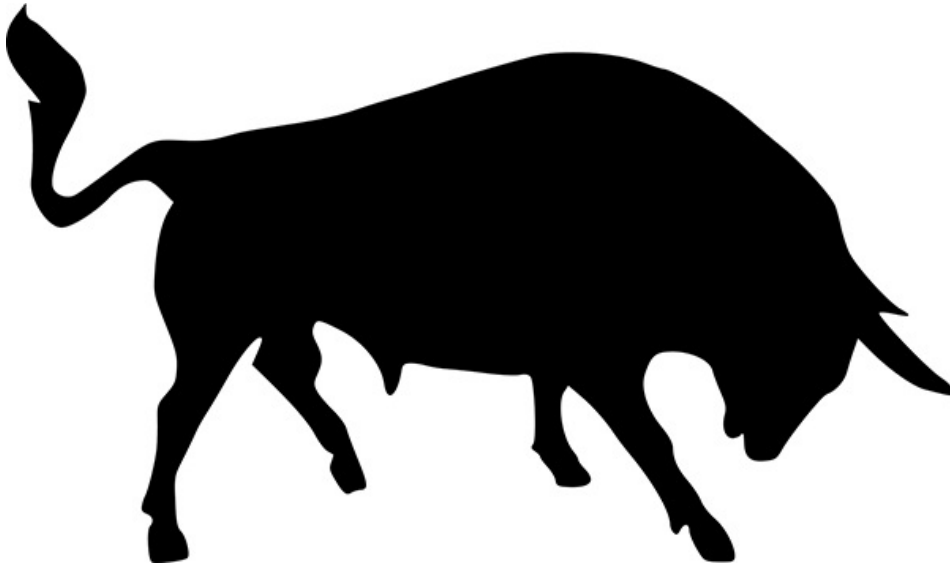

- I can ask and say where places are.
- I can describe a city, its landmarks and traditions.
- I can express opinions, intentions and suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Sally is chatting with John! She tells him all about Spain!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: How's your trip?
Sally: I think it's the best trip ever!
John: What's the highlight?
Sally: I loved the Running of the Bulls in Pamplona! It's a Spanish tradition!
John: Sounds dangerous! Where is Pamplona?
Sally: It's in the Navarre region. You should look it up! It's in the south of Spain.
John: Bulls trample people, right? Was it scary?
Sally: Yes, in my opinion it was pretty scary. Another great, historical city was Bilbao. The Guggenheim is a masterpiece. It's right near the water.
John: What places are you going to explore in London?
Sally: I can't wait! I intend to visit many attractions. How's your job?
John: It's tiring.
Sally: I suggest you take time off.
John: I have a couple weeks off soon! I'm going to Rio to celebrate at Carnival!

Let's Practice!
