Let's Start!

I'd rather take the bus!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- When you visit a new place, do you like to walk?
- Do you prefer to take the bus? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and transport.
- I can talk about intentions and plans.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.

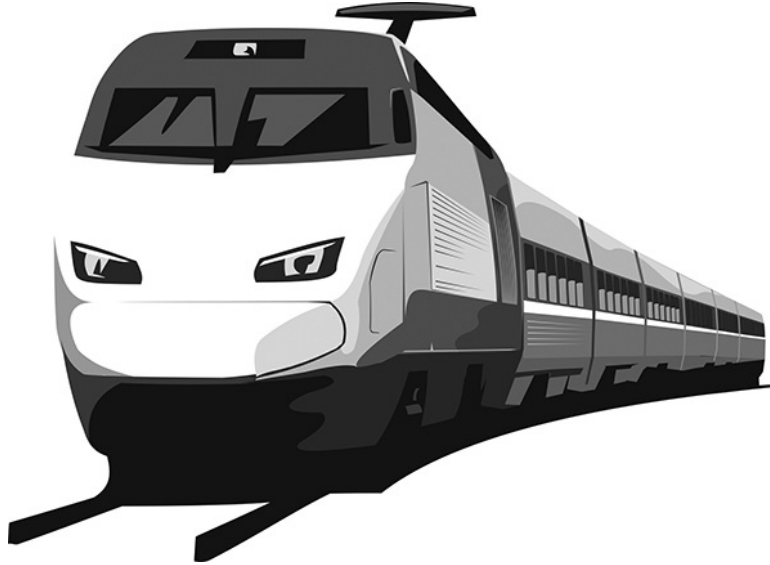

Let's Explore!

Sally asks the concierge about where to go in the city. Where does she decide to go?

* The "concierge" is the person in a hotel who helps tourists.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Excuse me, can I ask you a question?

Concierge: Of course.

Sally: I'd really like to eat some authentic Spanish food from Bilbao. Can you recommend a good restaurant?

Concierge: Yes! There's a terrific steak restaurant down the street. You can call them to make a reservation.

Sally: Oh ... I would rather go to a vegetarian place.

Concierge: Hmm. There aren't many vegetarian restaurants. Maybe a tapas place! There's a great tapas bar near the Guggenheim Museum.

Sally: Yes, I love tapas!

Concierge: It's far from here. To get there fast, I suggest you take a taxi.

Sally: That's expensive. What about the bus?

Concierge: The bus is slow. Take the train to arrive quickly.

Sally: Good idea. I'm very hungry!

Let's Practice!

Sally talks about her intentions and plans.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use I'd really, intend on, rather go, planning to, like to.

1. I would _____ to a vegetarian place.
