

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Take a trip to Spain! Sun, Soccer and ... Tomatoes?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the ay sound.
- I can talk about travel, customs and traditions.

Ask your partner:

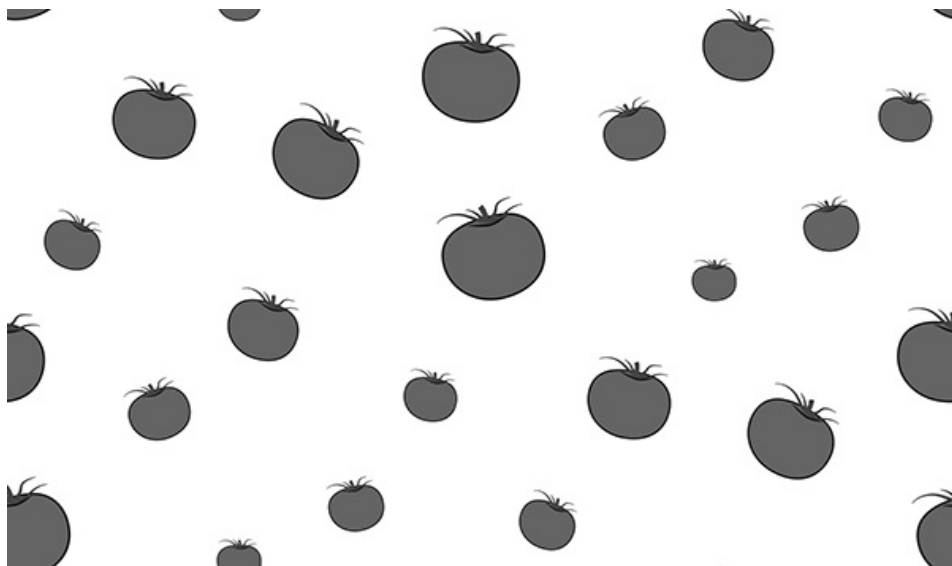

- What is a popular tradition in your country?
- Can you think of any other traditions?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Sally read her blog about a Spanish festival. Does it sound like fun to you?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Want to throw tomatoes? Come to La Tomatina! When does throwing tomatoes at someone become fun instead of insulting? At La Tomatina festival in Buñol, Spain. It's a place where strange things happen.

For 900 years, the people of Buñol celebrated and prayed to their patron saint, Luis Beltran, in a yearly festival. However, in 1957 the festival started to get wild!

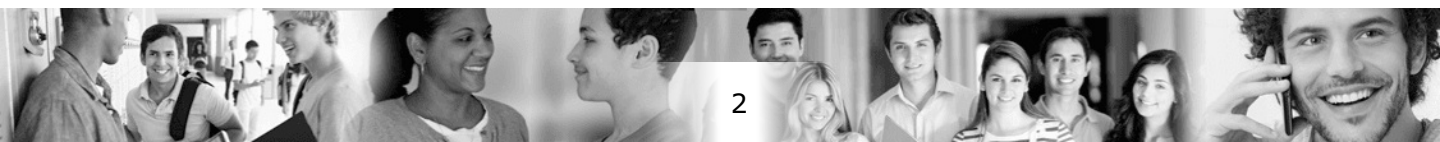

A few friends began a food fight with tomatoes. Now, throwing tomatoes at each other has become a tradition on that day in May. Crowds of tourists come to join in the La Tomatina celebration.

There, they can join the 10,000 residents of the town in throwing overripe tomatoes at each other, turning the main street into tomato soup! Luckily, cleaning up the tomatoes is part of the celebration too. Imagine the stains!

I haven't seen anything like this before!

Have your say. Would you like to stay in Buñol? E-mail me your comments.

Sally XO

Let's Practice!

Let's practice saying the ay sound. Words with this sound can have different spelling patterns.

Instructions: Underline the ay sound in each word. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Pray
2. Saint
3. May
4. Tomato
5. Throwing tomatoes at each other has become a tradition on that day in May.
6. The people of Buñol celebrated and prayed to their patron saint, Luis Beltran, in a yearly festival.
7. Would you like to stay in Buñol?
8. Have your say.

Let's Practice!

Let's learn more about this Spanish tomato festival.

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. There's food | a) to the small town to join in the La Tomatina celebration. |
| 2. Throwing tomatoes at each other has | b) everywhere! |
| 3. I hadn't seen | c) become a tradition on that day. |
| 4. Crowds of tourists come | d) their patron saint, Luis Beltran. |
| 5. For 900 years the people of Buñol celebrated | e) anything like this before. |

Extension Activity

Let's practice saying and using words with the ay sound.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Say the words in the table aloud with a partner.
- If you do not know a word, look it up in a dictionary.
- Choose 5 words.
- Make 5 sentences using one word from the table in each sentence.
- Choose as many words as you can to make a tongue twister.
Example: The display was always on the way to the subway.
- Say your tongue twister to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I say words with the ay sound to practice my pronunciation.

☐
☐

I make and practice a tongue twister.

☐
☐

I locate words in the dictionary to learn new words and practice saying them aloud.

☐
☐

Target Words

- Spain (noun): a Spanish speaking country in Europe
e.g. There is a famous festival in Spain.
- tomato (noun): a round, soft, red fruit that is eaten raw or cooked
e.g. Tomatoes are nice in salads.
- strange (adjective): bizarre or unusual
e.g. It's a place where strange things happen.
- to celebrate (verb): to do something special or enjoyable
e.g. The people in the village celebrate the festival every year.
- stain (noun): a mark on something
e.g. The tomato left a stain on my shirt.
- patron saint (noun): a saint who protects a place or type of person
e.g. The people of Buñol celebrated their patron saint, Luis Beltran.

Learning Points

Contractions

You often "contract" or shorten words in English in conversation.

Example: She is/She's, It is/It's

You place an apostrophe (') in place of the missing letter or letters in writing.

Subject + verb	Contraction
She is She is not	She's She isn't / She's not
He is He is not	He's He isn't / He's not
It is It is not	It's It isn't / It's not
They are They are not	They're They aren't

Examples:

- Who's singing? (Who is singing?)
- They're coming. (They are coming.)

Learning Points

The AY Sound

There are some patterns that can help you identify vowel sounds like the ay sound.

A-E Words

You can add an -e to the end of a word like mad to make made. Examples: cake, make, lake, fake

AI Words

You can use ai to make the AY (or long A) sound. Examples: strain, pain, main, gain

EI Words

You can use ei to make the AY (or long A) sound. Example: vein, eight, weight, beige

Examples:

- We are going to pray in the church.
- I made a tomato salad for lunch.
- I have a large stain on my shirt.
- I can meet you at eight o'clock.

