Let's Start!

Let's visit Toledo!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What's your favorite city?
- What do you love about the city?
- What attraction would you recommend to a friend?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe a city, its landmarks and traditions.
- I can say where places are.
- I can tell someone where something is located.

Let's Explore!

The British woman tells Sally about the many things to see in Toledo. Most buildings are from the Middle Ages

* Historical periods like the "Middle Ages" (500 - 1500 AD) are always capitalized.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Toledo is impressive!

British woman: I love it here, too. I live here. I love the small streets that twist around the city.

Sally: What should I see here?

British woman: Oh, there are so many things to see in this city. Go to the cathedral! It's from the Middle Ages. It's breathtaking. The architecture is very interesting. It has lovely stained glass windows.

Sally: Perfect. I just love architecture! Where is it?

British woman: It's at the end of the street.

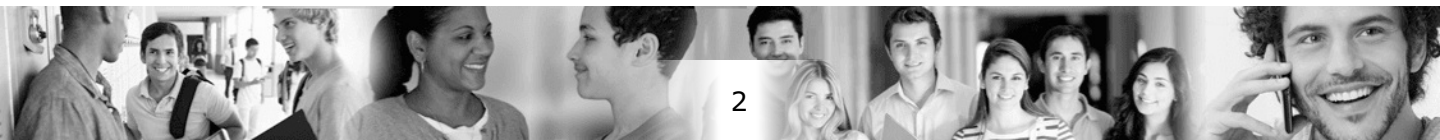

Sally: Thanks! What else should I see?

British woman: Well, there's lots of great shopping in the area. Toledo has beautiful ceramics and metalwork.

Sally: I'd love that.

British woman: The best stores are only a few streets away. Go down this street. The stores are across from the park.

Sally: Thanks!

Let's Practice!

Read the dialogue again. What can Sally see in the Toledo Cathedral?
